

Aluminum Wood Inswing Sectional Standard Sill

The LaCantina Doors Aluminum Wood system can be configured so the panels swing and stack to the interior. Inswing configurations are suitable for weather protected openings only. It is important that the exterior surface level is lower than the sill to enable water drainage from the sill to the exterior.

